“ Dewayne and Tammy, although I only met Misty a couple of times when I was helping Bill in his home, I do remember her and her beautiful blonde daughters. I am so sorry for your loss and can't imagine your pain. May God grant you and her daughters peace and his comfort as well as your entire family during this time.

“ I don't even know where to start. Misty and I shared MANY memories together..At one point we were inseparable. Her family became my family. We would drink coffee together, cookout, cruise around, listen to music she even taught me how to play Pool in the basement. Trips to her Grandparents house always seemed to be our favorite. She loved so hard. Life isn't always fair. Her smile could light up a room. Life goes by so fast and distance became the new normal. But in our hearts is where our sisterhood Always stayed. I will ALWAYS remember our times together. The good the bad and the ugly. Because yes we had them all. I just wish that life didn't change so much and end the way that it did. I love you all. Misty Jane you will always be my sister, my friend and now my angel.

“ So sorry for your loss. Our deepest condolences. Kevin and I had only met Misty a couple months ago, but had met her lovely girls at church camp this past summer. We had visited her on a few occasions with advice and prayers. Misty was on our mind a lot, and praying she would have a happy healthy relationship with her girls and with herself. She is at peace now. God bless you all and prayers for comfort at this difficult time.
