“Ninety years old, she was a tiny spitfire of a lady. Mother of nine, yep nine kids. She was fiery and full of energy. She cooked simple but delicious food. She never went anywhere without her lipstick on, and she was a die-hard Cardinals baseball fan. She was an even bigger fan of watching, as she put it, those Puerto Rican boys play ball. I think she was crushing on a few of them. She left behind about a million grandkids and great grandkids. She will be missed.

I shared her deviled egg recipe. We have it every Easter. I wanted to honor her by sharing it with you.
