“ Art was a neighbor and friend for over FORTY years, and through 3 of his wives and several of his girlfriends, as well as my boyfriends. We drank a quite a few beers together, listened to a lot of music together, and shared our thoughts, philosophies, and secrets. He offered his sage wisdom and opinions on many subjects over those four decades. I suspect he will be missed by many. RIP Art. And when you have the time send me a message. Take care Art. I hope you are in a good place now.

“ My best friend for many years. We shared many strange, funny or great times. He taught me a lot, I'd like to think I taught him something too. We kinda went different ways the last couple decades but I thought of him often.

Seeing this is such a shock, I am so sad we hadn't talked for so long. For what it's worth, I took the picture posted in this obituary, maybe my favorite of him. Thanks to whoever chose to use this to remember Artie.

Our times will always be my good friend, rest in peace, Artie.
