“ Dear Family....Thinking you today in the loss of your Dear One. She was a very gifted Christian woman & shared her gifts with many over the years. My family remembers she & Clarence as loving & caring people. Our family was touched by them when our son, Marty became ill with Leukemia. We were sent from our home in Mo. to St.Jude Hospital In Memphis, Tn. They very quickly opened up their home to my parents (Rev. & Mrs.Esco Malin) who had come to be with us at this most difficult time They ministered to all of us in ever so many ways, When my dad needed to return home, they brought mother to the hospital every day to be with us, picked her up in the evening & met all her needs for many days, We are grateful Our Dear Lord allowed our family's paths to cross many years ago..(My brother, Ron Malin was blessed to be married to your dad's sister, Carolyn.)Our deepest sympathy to each of you. May all the wonderful memories you shared, bring you comfort in great measure. 2nd.Cor.1:3-4, ...Rev.14:13.....Phyllis & Bill Benson
