“ I will miss my Aunt Brenda so much but I know she’s looking down on me with that beautiful smile and beautiful hair. I will never forget when I used to get in trouble at my granny’s house when I was a kid, and how I used to sit in her lap and cry. She would console me by rocking me back and forth until I was ready to terrorize the neighborhood again (haha). Those are moments I will cherish for the rest of my life. I know heaven has become way more beautiful and humorous now that you are there, Aunt Brenda. I love you so much and always will, rest peacefully.
