I met Carol back in 1962. She was only 13 years old at that time and I was 15. She was my very first love. I will never forget the memories we made together. Unfortunately, we were separated when my parents moved away to Missouri. But Carol will always be remembered as the greatest love of my life.

“ I am so sorry to hear her death. She and her family lived close to the old shoe factory. We kids ther was 3 of us and I'm thinking 4 or 5 of them. were neighborhood kids running around riding our bikes and playing hide and seek. Over the years we have kept in touch on Facebook She was such a beautiful soul inside out. I always thought of pure class when I saw her. Please accept my condolences.
