“ My mother Lois was great friends with Catherine. They worked together on the Fitzgerald Trust for community meals for many years. Catherine was always so sweet and helpful to me any time I wanted to post something in the Farina Paper. We are all devastated at this loss of such a wonderful woman.

“ I remember fondly her active and loyal involvement with the meals in Farina. She was always an upbeat and pleasant individual who shined with Jesus in her heart as she tended to so many in so many ways. Truly she was a good and faithful servant!! Shalom Catherine. Shalom.
