“ Yes, heaven did gain another angel with the passing of my mom, yet I also know she is now one of my angels, and she will be with me until I meet her again in heaven. Mom went through her illness with so much grace, and she learned and loved so much in her latter years. The past few years especially, she demonstrated to her family, friends, and healthcare workers what an incredible woman she is! She is my hero, and a wonderful example of someone who can overcome life's challenges. Mom, this is such a wonderful gift to me, and ALL of your sufferings have served such high purposes. I must mention my dad, who is also my hero; he loves her so much and happily was her caretaker for years. I love you mom, and I know you love me. Your daughter Catherine

“Heaven gained another angel on December first when Auntie Charlene left her earthly home and went to the Everlasting Arms of the Father. Although our hearts are filled with overwhelming sadness and our tears freely flow, we know she is in a beautiful place where there is no pain or sorrow. She now knows that incredible peace that passes all understanding, and that comforts us greatly. She has blessed us with a treasure chest of memories thus enriching our lives beyond measure. Countless are the times she would say, "tell me something to make me laugh," only to beg me 15 minutes later to cease before she hurt herself from laughing so hard. Aunts are so very special and she was the best! We were not that far apart in age so we often felt like sisters. I love her so very much and I shall miss her always. Chuck joins me in these feelings and in offering our deepest sympathy to Uncle Mattster, Amy, Cuzzy Cat, and Ken. You are on our hearts and in our prayers. We love you, Dana and Chuck
