“ Jim and I had been pen friends for many years and we finally met up together with our respective spouses spending 3 days exploring Yellowstone. It was a real treat meeting Charlotte Baxter and spending those 3 days with her. What a classy lady. Condolences and love from your Australian pen friend.

“ Mrs. Baxter was such a help to my mother after she had her stroke. She was an amazing person. I still have the table runner and placemats she made me for my wedding. We always use them on our anniversary. I am so sorry to hear she has passed. I will keep her family in my daily thoughts
