“ I remember all those times throughout the years that Lowell and I would prepare to go to the lake or take vacation or just go fishing and there you would sit on the picnic table with your head on your knees. You would look so pathetic with your lip out and pouting. Lowell would say, "Come on Danny, you can go with us!" We would be in the car and I'd say, "Danny, I can't believe you would sit out there and mope all day". Then you would look at us and say, "Well, it worked didn't it!?" Danny, we always enjoyed having you with us on every trip. I'll miss you everyday - love, Aunt Dot

“ So many memories and all good ones. I'll never forget you going to Silver Dollar City with us the summer after my mom passed away. The 1st day at the motel when you jumped in the pool and hit bottom and skinned up your face. You just laughed it off like it wasn't anything and went on to enjoy the trip. Somewhere i think i may still have a picture of that. How many nights did we spend up in your room (and out on the roof, lol) just talking about life? Who knew then where it would lead us? Your mom catching us smoking and making us smoke those unfiltered Pall Malls, think we were all sick for days. I am blessed to have known you, Ernie and your mom. Sorry we "lost track" over the years. Your soul will live on through your daughter. Until we meet again, Burr Head. lol. Funny, i still cut my hair the same way.

“ I was always envious of your haircut, and someday I may get mine cut like yours. The last time you came to our church, you had that special hair cut. I will always remember you as a positive person, although you went through quite a lot of adversity. I appreciate that.. You will be truly missed.

“ Dan, To know you was to love you for you were such a gentle soul. I know the heavens have a brighter star in their midst and a true light is gone way too soon from us here on earth. Rachel, as you reflect back on your daddy, know that he was loved by many and was able to give love right back. We never saw him without a smile on his face and he always had kind words to say. He worked hard for me when he was my employee. He loved life, he loved all of us who worked with him (flawed as some of us were) and he loved you! He loved the Lord and the Lord was a part of his spirit just as he breathed. You should be very proud of your daddy! It was an honor to know him.

“ As I remember one of our many walks together into that factory, Dan & I talked about what was happening in our lives, I remember Dan speaking of Faith & me agreeing that we must have Faith. Faith to carry on. As we parted that day, him going into the SMC room & me headed to the inspectors office. Dan give me a smile & a corny joke. My dear friend, I have Faith, Faith that you & your mom will meet me once again at Heaven's Gate, who knows maybe even with a joke! I love you Dan Foltz, you are are in my heart forever!
