

David Wayne Hacker

January 1, 1953 - October 11, 2019

David W. Hacker, 66, of Centralia, passed away Friday, October 11, 2019 at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, MO surrounded by his family.

David was born January 1, 1953 in Centralia, the son of Edward Hacker and Joyce (Johnson) Hacker. He married Cathleen Carpenter on February 24, 1973 at the First United Methodist Church in Centralia and she survives him in Centralia.

In addition to his wife Cathy of 46 years, he is survived by two children: Michael Hacker of Centralia and Angie Hacker of St. Louis, MO; three grandchildren: Max Hacker Gathemann, Isabella Hacker, and Sophia Hacker; one brother: Steven Hacker of Niceville, FL; two sisters: Susan Bozett and husband John of Centralia, and LuAnn Wolff and husband Roger of Centralia; sister-in-law: Carol Carpenter of Centralia; Aunts and Uncles: Richard Hacker and wife Marcie of Albers, Loretta Trevelline of Carlyle, Doris Tadlock of Carlyle, and Mary Kampwerth and husband John of Highland; and many cousins.

David was preceded in death by his parents: Edward and Joyce Hacker; grandparents: Edward and Ida Hacker; and many aunts and uncles.

David had a passion for fishing. Also, you could find him cheering on his favorite baseball team, the St. Louis Cardinals, any time a game was being played. David graduated Centralia High School Class of 1971. He had previously worked for the I.C. Car shops, and was a meat cutter at Sharps in Mt.Vernon. Presently, he was the owner of Peach Ridge Sawmill. David's greatest enjoyment was spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

A Graveside Service will be held Saturday, November 16, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. with R.C. Merten officiating at Hillcrest Memorial Park in Centralia. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Grandchildren's college fund and will be accepted by the Sutherland-Garnier Funeral Home at 235 North Sycamore Street Centralia, IL 62801 (618) 532-3523, who is honored to be of service to the Hacker family.
