You was a very good friend and a great person. I was unaware that you were struggling or I would have tried to help you more. I have known you for years and you always had a smile on your face and never a bad word about anything or anyone. I will miss our little talks about the little things. May you rest in peace in God's hands now and forever my friend...T

“ First I would like to give my dearest condolences to Beth's family. The hardest thing a parent can go through is losing a child. You all are in my prayers.
I have known Beth for several years now. Her and I were in a very dark place together at one time. And I can say first hand that it's not easy to overcome but it is possible and there is hope. Even through the struggles, Beth was always so kind to everyone she was around. We would meet up at the McDonald's and get a chocolate chip frappe together . She got me hooked on them! She was always so easy to talk to. And no matter what she was going through, I never seen her without a smile on her face. She loved so hard. Her family her family her family!!! She loved them so so much. Especially those beautiful blonde headed babies. I know that she is at peace now and that Jesus has her. I wish her babies and her family a lifetime of joy and happiness and prayers for strength to get through this difficult time. Through the good, bad, and ugly always remember the Beth that you knew. My deepest condolences.

Our prayers are with you I think of Beth when she was a little girl laying in the bed laughing all the time and her curly hair and that little Armory look. Our hearts hearts are with you at this time it's really hard to believe. disbelief sometimes we don't understand but the good Lord does.
