“ Emma I watched you grow up from an ambitious little girl into a very beautiful, smart, and high spirited woman. You were one of my favorites very out going and lovable. During the drill team years you were always thinking of ways to raise money for uniforms and push your peers into being the best. I also remember and admire you mother Joyce who was my right hand, a very strong and active parent whom I will never forget. My dearest Emma you were taken away too soon. Forgive me for sounding a bit selfish but when one find a jewel like you it its hard to let go. My little sister life as we know it will never be the same. We can no longer see you smile or enjoy those simple moments when we can sit and just talk and take in each other's presence. This alone makes it impossible to understand why. But the more I think of you all I can think of is all the good times which brings an overflow of comfort. I know it hard to understand and accept but God aligned this path for you. We may not think it's fair we may not fully understand but one day we will. You are one of his angels one of our angels and we are truly grateful to have the opportunity to share you in our world. I will miss you my Dearest Emma now you can rest in peace.
