“Eva was our Guest of Honor at the dedication of the monument to the crew of the USS Robert L. Wilson, DD847 at Hillcrest Memorial Cemetary in October 2010. For us the shipmates in attendance it was an honor to meet and hear her recollections of Robert's youth and the early days of WWII in Centralia. May the seas be calm with the wind at your back. “It seems like just yesterday I met that vibrant young lady. The first time I met her was at Roberts first grave dedication and the next time was as the cemetery for Robert and the anchor ceremony. Each time I look at her picture and read the assistant to the president letter dated December 28, 1945 with instruction on how to get the the Robert L. Wilson ship ceremony, I think of her. Yes I look at the Wilson picture and read the letter often May God be with you Eva
