“ We got acquainted with Evelyn at the nursing home and my mom and us all got to be friends quickly with her. She was truly a joy to be around. Sometimes we would get laughing so hard, her bottom false teeth would start moving. She would say I think I am going to lose my dentures and then we would all get so tickled! She and Mom ate all their meals together. I called them the bob set twins or frick and frack..one or the other was always doing or saying something funny!!
