When Georgia moved on to eternal life, she left behind one son: Rodney Haas and his wife Karen of Cahokia, IL; three daughters: Cynthia Leek and husband Billy of Junction City, Brenda Albright of Junction City, and Debra Hardin and husband Mike of Junction City; eight grandchildren: Jason Albright and wife Christina, Vanessa Setzker and husband Jack, Stephanie Haas, Whitney Osborne, Ashley Prashun and husband Jason, and Angela Walta and husband James, Joseph Hardin, and Joanna Haas; several great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Upon her heavenly arrival, Georgia was reunited with her loving husband Gene Haas, her parents: John and Mary Smith; three brothers: James Smith, Jack Smith, and Charles Smith; one son-in-law: Chris Albright; and one sister-in-law: Ruth Smith.

Georgia was a sweet and generous lady. In her younger years, Georgia worked at Kas Potato Chip Company as a secretary. Later in life she worked as a Pink Lady at St. Mary's. She was a Woman of the Moose member for over 60 years. She had a strong Christian faith and was a member of Calumet Street
