“ Jerry was my father and I'm his first son from his second marriage. I only met him twice in my life. Once when my sister (one of his daughters) and I drove from Wisconsin to Centralia when we were about 25 years old to finally meet him for the first time. We were one and three years old when he left us. The second time was at Grandma Phillips (his mother) funeral in Milwaukee. He was nice to me but he didn't have much to say. I wasn't a part of his life.
