“ I am so sad to hear of Jermi's passing. I remember him well. He was one of my favorite students. He was delighted when he made the perfect pineapple up-side-down cake in Home Ec. He showed great surprise when he discovered his math test was much more difficult than the student sitting beside him. These memories bring a smile to my face. My heart goes out to his brother Dan and sister Shanna. My world is a little less bright today.

“ Dedicated to Germis family - I guess the saying is true, the good die young. He was a freebird meant to soar in the highest flight. A flame that burned so deep and hot. He was a star that shined so bright, his eternal flame was needed for reasons we may never understand. . This man was a diamond in the rough, a rebel looking for a cause bigger then himself. He loved with his whole soul and accepted me with loving arms. Unconditional love is the best lesson he bestowed upon me and my son. Death is something the living are left to bear, with the tears, loss, & pain. Now may we remember the laughs, memories, and time we had with our angel Germi LaneR.I.P.

“ An angel has gotten his wings much sooner then anyone could had ever expected. He chose the best of the best on that fateful night. You were a FREEBIRD, now you can fly high in the heavens. May God bless all of your family and guide you all to peace and serenity through this hard time. Thank you for excepting me into your family. XO Love Aunt Maggie and Uncle Billy
