She was born October 22, 1919 in Mound City, daughter of Edward Stephen Schuler and Edith (Reno) Schuler. She married Frank M. Gassaway on July 4, 1938 and they later divorced. Gladys had a green thumb and her yard was always full of beautiful flowers. She was an excellent baker and candy maker. Anyone who ate her various candies always raved about them. She also knitted constantly. She was an avid bingo and pinochle player and played with a vengeance well into her nineties. Gladys was a devoted mother, a loving grandmother, and a friend of all. She will be missed by the many people she met along her life's journey.
