“ The Quandt family took me in as a teenager even though I wasn't their responsibility and they didn't have to. In my time hanging around the Quandt household and living there I got to know them very well. Gay was an example of the patience, kindness, and selflessness that any woman of God should aspire to become. She was the embodiment of the Gospel of Christ. I grew up a ruffian, and Gay and Phillip changed my life. I owe them big time. Gay will be dearly missed by all that were lucky enough to get to know her.

I never met Gay, however I knew the Quandt family growing up in Kinmundy back in the 60's. Though I haven't resided there for nearly half a century, it's still my town. so when someone from Kinmundy passes away, it's like losing a family member. Condolences to the Quandts, the Geilers, and the Cassedays. I share with all of you the blessed hope of meeting our departed loved ones on the other side.
