“ When it comes to Mother in Law's, Bobby Jo Wooters was the best. She took me to Texas to meet her mother, Stella Belle Fant, at which time I was introduced to my first rattle snake when I went out to the clothes line. :-) She taught me how to make chicken, gizzards, and noodles, and ham hocks, pinto beans, and corn bread. She had a sense of humor that would keep you laughing, and her daughter Patti inherited that also. She LOVED the Gaithers and would sing to their music. Bobby Jo enjoyed country music, and we would often go listen to Guy play the steel guitar with his band, and listen to Tim entertain with his band. One of my fondest memories was surprising her with a visit to meet Mickey Gilley in Montgomery, AL, and getting her picture made with him. I don't think she slept a wink that night. Oh how I loved you Bobby Jo. I could tell you anything, and she was the best listener. Until she went into the nursing home, or shortly after, she always sent me Daughter in Law birthday and Christmas cards. I'll never forget her words "You'll always be my daughter in law." She was a Gem. Loved you sweet lady. God Be With You Till We Meet Again. Rest in Peace, Bobby.
