“ POP, that's what us kids called you. You taught me so much, how to tie my shoes, how to mow the lawn,how to play music, you pretty much taught us kids everything we needed to know to get through life and you taught us well, thanks. My POP was a very kind soul who would do anything in his power to help people who needed help. POP was a very funny soul too, always had something funny to say to lighten a situation, people loved my POP.I'm really missing my POP right now but I'm so thankful he is not in pain anymore and is in the great beyond now cracking jokes, playing music,and having fun again with the souls of dear friends and family who passed before POP. I LOVE YOU POP and MISS YOU. Thank You GOD for giving me and my Family the greatest DAD a person will ever have.REST IN PEACE POP.
