“ Henry was such a big-hearted man with a contagious smile and laugh. I know that even during the saddest of times, he could get us laughing. I'm very thankful I got to know and love Henry. I am very sorry to hear of his passing and wish all of his loved ones comfort and hopefully, some memories that bring laughter.

Henry, I will always remember the good times we shared. You were not only a brother-in-law but you were also the brother I never had. The family gatherings, Christmas dinners, deer hunting, camping, the horse races and of course the annual trips along the Missouri Wine Trail ending in Hermann and Oktoberfest. RIP my friend.
