November 3, 1928 - May 5, 2021

Imogene B. Hollinshead, 92, of Salem, Illinois passed away May 5, 2021 at Salem Township Hospital.

She was born November 3, 1928 in Foraker, OK, the daughter of Edgar T. and Ora Belle (McIntosh) Rogers.

Imogene will be remembered by family and friends for being very community spirited. She was a beauty operator for many years at their farm home in Farina. Her children will always remember the many life lessons she taught them, how to work hard, to be responsible, to pick up corn and sell in order to buy new school clothes, and especially how to camp as a family, usually at Forbes or Carlyle Lake, making use of what you had, even a tarp for a tent. She spent countless hours playing board games, cards and puzzles. As a couple, she and her husband loved dancing to the Big Band sounds of that period in time.

She united in marriage with Raymond J. Hollinshead, March 26, 1948 in Corinth MS and he preceded her in death May 19, 2010.

Surviving are her children, David Hollinshead and wife Kathy of Teutopolis, IL, Alan Hollinshead and wife Becky of Salem, IL, Dana Underwood and husband Dan of Springfield, IL, Linda Hollinshead of MO and Dreama Robinson and husband Dennis of Lake Station, IN, along with 13 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and her sister Marie of Salem, IL.
