

Jo-Rene Bryant

November 23, 1933 - May 24, 2015

Jo-Rene Bryant, 81, of Centralia, IL, passed away Saturday, May 24, 2015, at her home in Centralia, Illinois. Jo-Rene was born November 24, 1933, in Henryetta, Oklahoma daughter of Charles Richards and Bertha (Goodson) Richards. Jo-Rene married Billie E. Bryant on May 8, 1954 at First Baptist Church in Centralia, IL and he survives her, In addition to her husband she is survived by three nieces: Janna Deadmond and husband Vernon of Odin, Lisa Scharnhorst and husband Mike of Salem, Susie Ruhl and husband Rick of Irvington; one nephew: John Campbell and wife Dona of Sedalia, Missouri; many great-nieces and nephews. Jo-Rene was preceded in death by one brother: Dick Richards; two sisters: Charlene Campbell and Dixie Bryan; two nephews: Bruce Campbell and Ronnie Bryant. Jo-Rene was the bookkeeper for her and her husband's business for many years. She was a member of Central City Baptist Church. In her younger years Jo-Rene enjoyed camping out with friends and family and going water-skiing. There will be a private family and close friends graveside service for Jo-Rene with Pastor John Campbell officiating at the Deadmond Cemetery Odin, Illinois. In lieu of flowers, Memorials may be made to the Donor's Choice and will be accepted at Sutherland-Garnier Funeral Home in Centralia. Sutherland-Garnier Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements, where friends may inquire for additional information. Online condolences may be made at www.sutherlandfuneralhome.com .

Tribute Wall

JS

“ So sorry for this loss .. I have wonderful memories with Bill & Jo.
Growing upBoating & camping at lake centralia & crab orchard .
Also as friends with my family . She was a lovely happy lady .. May god bless her & keep her pain free for ever more

Jane Ann Sensel - June 05, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RO

“ Jo-Rene Bryant

Rose - June 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM