

Joshua Levi Sloat

January 13, 1987 - September 4, 2019

Joshua Levi Sloat, 32 years 8 months, passed into the next life on Wednesday, September 4, 2019 in Centralia.

Joshua was born to Tony Ray Sloat and Susan (Salisbury) Sloat on January 13, 1987 in Centralia, IL.

He is survived by his mother, Susan Sloat Kleinedler and husband Kurt of Centralia, his father Tony Sloat of Arkansas, his beloved son, Chaise Andrix Sloat of Centralia, a sister Andrea Wolenhaupt and partner Stacey Gabriel, sister Ashley Sloat Williams and husband Max of Arkansas, a niece Jessica Wolenhaupt, his maternal great grandmother Ramona Salisbury, Aunts Debby Schippel and husband Paul, Betty Riechman, Aunt Theresa Martin and husband Harold of Arkansas, Aunt Terri Finn, a step sister Ruth Kleinedler, and step brother Mark Kleinedler, cousins Courtney Mitchell, Jaime Martin and Erin Terrell, Aunt Patty Salisbury and Otto. He is also survived by several good friends, the ones who cared what happened to Josh.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather Chuck Sloat Sr., his uncle Chuck Sloat Jr., his paternal grandmother M. Ellen Sloat and his maternal grandfather Richard "Dick" Salisbury. Also preceding Josh was his dear friend Dusty Garner.

Josh attended Centralia High School and later received his G.E.D. He was a gifted guitar player and songwriter. He was a roofer and Carpenter by trade. He was charming, full of hilarious nonsense and incredibly strong.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held Sunday, September 8, 2019 at 5:00
