“ “Mimi” always had a sense of humor and loved to joke with us grandkids. We loved baking cookies together and helping her make her homemade cranberry sauce! We had countless walks down the street to the train tracks where she would let us place coins on the track and then go back later to help us search for them after being run over by the train. Mimi will be greatly missed!!

“ Judy was a wonderful mother-in-law and always made me feel welcome and a part of the family. I remember the place on the lake they had and the fish fry we had. I think Deb and Cindi hated the place. Judy is in heaven with Bill and Deb. They are all missed. May they all rest in peace.
