“ June, what a wonderful lady and such a delight to know. I'm sorry you retired so early in my Centralia career, but I always enjoyed running into you and Joe at various activities and events. Rest in peace, dear friend.

“ Joe, Bob, Ron and Family, Sorry to hear of your loss at this time. June was a special lady and someone I always had great respect in seeing and spending time with. She always had a smile when Bob, Ron, Debbie Klein Taylor and I always returned from driver's ed adventures especially crossing the old Kaskaskia river bridge. I'm sure she'll be missed much in so many ways. Remembering you all with special prayers during this difficult time. Lois Defend - CHS Class of '73 Springfield, Illinois
