“ Larry was my brother in law for many years. My former husband, John Donahoo, Larry's brother, enjoyed his company immensely. They laughed and teased a lot. John called Larry "Stogie Lou" because he smoked cigars. I can only imagine the delight in John's eyes when he saw Larry walking up the path on that other shore when God called him home. Larry was extremely charitable in helping those he felt wereless fortunate; he always wanted to make sure children had a good Christmas. Larry had dogs over the years he called his "kids" and enjoyed spoiling. Larry was an incredibly beautiful child when he began his journey on earth as a spiritual being having a human experience. He weathered many childhood hardships and served in the US Navy and Army. A simple person in many ways, Larry was a dependable worker, attended church, and helped provide his mother with a lovely home, which they shared, toward her last days. May love and light surround you and God's love enfold you in the presence of those you have missed and now have been reunited with. Nameste...Peace and love...
