“ There are so many things I could share about Linda that I remember but I would not have enough room for them all....She was such a caring person that even after my divorce from her brother Andy she still accepted me like a sister as did the rest of the family...my husband was in awe because she even accepted him as part of the family .....I don't think I can ever remember when she had anything bad to say about anyone .....even people that gave her a hard time ...Linda really enjoyed her family and I love when no one would play Santa Claus at Christmas and she just jumped up to the plate and put the outfit on and even made her voice go deeper so the kids could not recognize her....She had a personality that would brighten up any room and now she is in Heaven showing all the angels how to have a good time....We Love You Linda and You Will Be Missed.
