

Lynda Chiavario

December 21, 1964 - May 6, 2025

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of Lynda Chiavario, who left this world on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, at the age of 60. Born on Monday, December 21, 1964 in Centralia, Illinois, the daughter of Victor Chiavario and Bette Eskew.

Lynda was a vibrant soul with a passion for music, art, and painting. She dedicated her time to being a spiritual teacher, helping others navigate life with astrology and her wise counsel. Her kitchen was a place of warmth and laughter, where she shared her love for cooking with her family. Above all, she treasured her time spent with her two beloved sons, Nonny Chiavario of Centralia and Skyler Chiavario of Schaumburg. Lynda's home was a sanctuary, a comfort zone where many sought her advice and kindness. She leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and creativity that will continue to inspire those who knew her. Lynda Chiavario will be remembered for her gentle spirit, her artistic talents, and the profound impact she made on her community. Her memory will forever remain in our hearts.

Lynda is survived by her sons; her sister, Brenda Lyons and husband J.C. of Sandoval; her brother, Mike Chiavario and wife Mary of Bellingham, Washington; and several nieces and nephews, who will all miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Victor Chiavario and Bette Eskew; her sisters, Rhonda and Nancy; and her beloved cat, Magic, who held a special place in her heart.

In accordance with Lynda's wishes, no public services will be held. The Sutherland-Garnier Funeral Home and Cremation Services, located at 235 North Sycamore Street in Centralia, Illinois, is honored to assist Lynda's family during this difficult time. Friends and family are invited to leave their condolences online by visiting www.sutherlandfuneralhome.com or the funeral home's Facebook page.
