“ You all have my deepest sympathy and are in my prayers. Kay always had a smile on her face and always enjoyed giving my dad a hard time. So I know he is welcoming her to heaven with a joke and smile.

“ May good memories bring you comfort. I met Kay when we were 12 years old, and we spent summers swimming and playing tennis. Many good times with Troy, Joe and Mike in the old neighborhood, too. My prayers are with you all.
