“ Wish You Could See This
By John Boulton
(for Dave Ash and all the family)

*Wish you were here to see this –
The love you'd left behind:
Gathered hearts you'll surely miss,
With thoughts of you in mind.*

*“Come! Oh, you've got to see this!”
Eager to share your joy,
Are delights we'll surely miss,
Shared moments we enjoy.*

*You honored your soul mate's love,
Children, your devotion –
Knowing such comes from Above,
Was your constitution.*

*Wish you could see this love now,
From within loving hearts;
The tears and cries will all somehow,
Allow the mends of hearts.*

*'Tis true, we miss each other,
'Til joined again with Christ;
For now, we hold each other,
Within our hearts through Christ.*

*A prophet once wrote, “How long?”
Of these sad times to pass;
The reply, as robes were donned,
“We won't forget the last.”*

*So, depart seems long for now,
Your presence sorely missed;*

*But such heartaches will somehow,
Become a long-lost myth.*

*'Tis true, the heart grows fonder,
Where absence separates;
We merely glimpse the wonder,
Awaiting Pearly Gates.*

*"Wish you were here to see this!"
No doubt, you're now chanting;
Donning your robe, amidst the bliss,
With wondrous joys... and praising.*

“ Aunt Marceline was a wonderful great aunt. Always smiling. Always laughing. Loved to tell stories of the family. Aunt Marceline and Uncle Bob were the best aunt and uncle a great niece could have. They will always hold a special place in my heart.
