“ My sincere sympathy Linda. I could see how good together you were when I was there. You have so many memories to comfort you. Use them. I know it works. Sandie Giustina and family... do you remember our train ride from Seattle to South Dakota when you were very young? Walking across town in the middle of the night because we'd been on the wrong train.

“ I never met Marvin, but I met him virtually as his sister is one of the few people that touched my life so deeply that distance and time are not an obstacle. Marvin picked up on that and friended me in facebook. His kind and encouraging words have left me in awe of how good people can be. Though we never met, thru the years I've considered him a friend. This world was better knowing him and a little sadder with the loss of him. My prayers are with his family Godspeed, my friend and we will meet one day in the kingdom of Heaven.
