“ We are so sorry about Lee's passing. He came to our home for many Thanksgiving dinners and Christmas dinners. He was a good friend to my ex husband, Tony Sloat, and a good friend to me. A few months back, my daughter Ashley and I went to the nursing home to see Lee. It was hard for me to see him in a wheelchair....but the familiar cigarette in his hand. He gave us many years of friendship and laughs and when I hugged him bye that day, I knew I wouldn't see him again. Tony lives in Arkansas and has been told of Lee's passing. While in the hospital a few months back, Tony was able to call Lee and they talked for quite awhile. It did them both good. God bless you all in the family. Susan Sloat.

“ Daddy.. you are my hero, my best friend, my teacher, my all. You taught me things I will never forget, Like how to drive and ride a bike, rollar skate and I actually ended up being pretty good too Dad, how to forgive, Love all people and be nice... yep my dad the best homemade pizza maker around, I hear you Daddy pulling in on your Harley, I hear you Dad, and I can see your smile, coming in after that long third shift making me and the boys a good breakfast... as these tears fall I know you are ok. Your battle is over now! And Dad you won the race, you fought a long fight. Now Ride Free and Rest when you need. I love you so much! Love Always, Your Daughter
