“ Neelu ji is blessed by her pious activities throughout her life. She fought as hard as Warriar King Bheeshma (Mahabharat). She extended her life just as Bheeshma extended his life in to the Uttarayan. Please note the astrological event of earth rotation which changes from southerly tilt to northerly tilt on January 14, almost every year. This year some almanacs calculated to be January 15. We all have to recognize her soul leaving the body not until January 16. This clearly indicates the strength of her pious life. It is said that all pious souls leaving in Uttarayan are bound to heavens. Pranams to Neelu ji.

“ My sincere sympathies to all Neelu 's family. I am so happy to have been able to share many fun family events with her even though we were only related in spirit. I loved watching her interacting with all the kids and getting them to burst out in loads of laughter. What a hero of hearts she was to all of us. Neelu you are still with us thru your spirit. Your peace is our peace as well. Will always remember your shining light as you rest in peace. Lois Defend
