

Ramona Salisbury

August 18, 1932 - April 17, 2020

Ramona Jane (Ford) Salisbury, 87 years 8 months of age, of Centralia, passed away peacefully into the next life on Friday, April 17, 2020, at her home surrounded by her loving family and friends.

Ramona was born August 18, 1932 in Centralia, IL. She was the oldest daughter of Hallie and Estelle (Peters) Ford. She was joined in marriage to Richard "Dick" Salisbury on May 30, 1959 in St. Louis.

Ramona graduated Centralia High School and then attended St. John's School of Nursing and graduated with her R.N. degree in 1958. She worked as a Registered Nurse for many years for Dr. Otto Espinosa and Dr. E.F. Stephens, Jr., both of Centralia.

Ramona was a long-time parishioner of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Centralia and she enjoyed attending Mass each Saturday until declining health kept her at home. She also enjoyed gardening and selecting beautiful ferns to display on her front porch. Ramona also got a kick out of hearing about and reading the Facebook comments on the pictures her daughter Susan would post of her each week, showing off her colorful church outfits with matching shoes and purse. She loved taking boat rides with her daughter Patty and Otto, and she enjoyed outings with her sisters, Betty and Debby, shopping and dining at their favorite restaurants. She also loved going to the local tanning salon, scary movies and crime dramas, and she cherished time spent with her grandchildren.

Ramona was preceded in passing by both parents (1976, 2002), her husband

Dick Salisbury, August 14, 2004, and her grandson, Joshua Levi Sloat, September 4, 2019.

Ramona is survived by 2 daughters, Susan (Salisbury) Kleinedler and husband Kurt, Patty Salisbury and Otto Robinson all of Centralia; granddaughters: Andrea (Donoho) Wolenhaupt and partner Stacey Gabriel of Centralia and Ashley (Sloat) Williams and husband Max of Searcy, Arkansas; great-granddaughter: Jessica Wolenhaupt and great-grandson: Chaise Sloat, who loving called her The Meems or MiMi. Also surviving are her sisters: Betty Riechman and Debby Schippel and husband Paul, all of Centralia, as well as many loving nieces and nephews.

Recalling some most important lessons learned in life, she replied, "Be honest with everyone, especially yourself. Don't worry about problems when you can't fix them and ask God for guidance when you're unsure of what to do."

Per her wishes, cremation rites will be accorded and a Private Family Service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the family and will be accepted at the Sutherland-Garnier Funeral Home and Cremation Services at 235 North Sycamore Street Centralia, Illinois 62801, (618)532-3523, who is honored to be of service to the Salisbury Family.
