“ *Becky and i have been friends for many many yrs. Were both bartenders at Skipper's and had alot of great moments there especially after closing me and her would just sit out back and unwind before going home and Skip would hollow out the window for us to shut up that would only get us going more.
Rest in peace my friend with all ur other friends there and ill see u again.*

“ I'm so sorry for the loss to Becky's family and friends. It seems like not so long ago when we were running around the playground at Field School. Becky was sweet and fun and always smiling. And she was 67 days younger than me. Gone far too soon. I pray for everyone who will miss her so much.
