“ My condolences to the family of Rob. I've known him since tutoring him in junior high at his home. where I met all of his family. They were all so sweet to me. I am so shocked that Rob died so soon after first his mother, then his older brother, and lastly his father last year. All gone way too soon. I pray to God for all four of them to rejoice in being together in Heaven and for no more pain and sorrow. Rob loved his niece and please God keep her safe and remembering all the love and good times the family had together, may they never be forgotten. — Miss Dollaine Wooley, Salem
