“ Thank you Roy for your gentle and kind spirit. From the time I was a small boy coming with my family to crunch through the snow and cut a Christmas tree on your farm we were friends. When I was a young man you made the time to listen to me and encouraged me in my love for nature and to pursue a career in conservation. You thoughtfully shared your own stories and sage advice. I am grown now with a wife and small son and daughter. Each Christmas season we go to a local farm and cut a tree and I think of you. Although I live way down in Florida you are always close in my heart. You are an inspiration to me and an example of a life lived with strength and grace.
