“ Sweet beautiful Ruth Ann. Goodness gracious this hurts. Little Angie looked at you like a mom, but we became friends when I visited you later in life. Thank you for putting up with me and Trish all those years. We had so much fun in the pool you always had spotless for us ( you spoiled us), your car you let us use to explore the world, the mouth watering dinners you cooked for us, You will always be the best mother I have ever known. I miss you already
