“ I have many fond memories of going to Aunt Sally’s house. One in particular was one winter when we were able to go sledding down a hill. Mom and Aunt Sally didn’t just watch, they joined in on the fun. May God bless you with peace knowing she is in Heaven now.

“ *I was the plumpest of Helen's kids & always hungry. When we'd stopped by the Kapp's house near lunchtime once when I was very young, I was SURE Aunt Sally could also multiply loaves & fishes too after I watched her "fluff out" a big salad from a very small head of lettuce! Ironically, the last time we spoke was when she & Uncle Kenny recognized me a pizza buffet in Highland some years back. I miss seeing all the sisters taking a run to settle a meal at summer gatherings or just relaxing over Chinese checkers. May our loving Father grant us all His comfort now. I miss seeing you all. I will miss my sister Sally, she was a blessing to me. Good to hear from you, Cynthia! I'm the only one left on earth, but I'm sure we will have a wonderful reunion when I get to Heaven! I'm not anxious to get there, Got too much left to do here! I am trying to make sure I take more people with me when I go!!!hugs Aunt Kay
