“ May you rest in peace Sharon in the arms of our loving Lord and Savior. It's been a long time since we have seen each other but can remember us together as cousins. You were part of my journey. Peace to you and your family as they will miss youbut there will always be a place in their hearts for you. God Bless

“ I am really sorry for your loss. I love Aunt Sharon. I know the hurt you are going through. It will not go away nor should it but try and bring all of the good memories to the top whenever your stomach starts to knot up. I will not be able to make the funeral unfortunately, I'm working in Tennessee. But please know I am with you in your hearts. I love you all very much.
