“ Our mom lived in the White House on the corner across from Sheila. She was a great neighbor and friend. Then our daughter and family moved into that house and Sheila would come over and help when needed. She also kept an eye on the place and called if any concern. Sheila had a big heart and will be missed by this family.

“ There are many memories...Halloween costumes, conversations about varying topics, her love of Paul McCartney and the Beatles, obscure songs, our shared love for Vince Gill, Woodstock, her love of animals, her joy to speak of her precious family, and her dedication to her work and to those with whom she worked. I will miss you, Sheila Darlene.
