“ Shirlie has been my "God Momma" for 25 yrs. She has taught me more than I can ever list or remember. She called me family. She said I was like a daughter to her. That made my heart swell to no end. If I came over and Tina and Theresa were there I was greeted, " it's just Diane, come on in". To be loved by that family in and out of the house was truly special.

She taught a class shortly after we both lost our husbands(m09 h08) and that's when the bond really began. She told me I reminded her of herself at my age(39). My spiritual voice took rise,I began laying hands on people, picking up her sayings. But one Sunday has stuck in my mind so I know I must share it. It was many yrs ago.She came in slightly late and that had me concerned. When she sat next to me I looked her straight in the eye and said," what's wrong with your heart?" She stared at me for a moment then asked how I knew. I said a voice has been shouting in my head since I walked in the doors! Then she told she did have some pain that morning and had to have a talk with both heaven and hell explaining it wasn't her time yet and she had more to do. I love you.

“ She is going to be missed. She was an amazing woman. She welcomed Brayden and I into the family with open arms from the very beginning no questions asked. She loved everyone. I am grateful I got to know her and be apart of her family.
