“ Aunt Stella, my dad Henry's youngest sister was a my mom and dads flower girl along with thier brother, as ring bearer, Uncle Eddy. Stella was a firecracker, always a postive voice over the phone as I was growing up in Chicago. I'll never forget the summers in Breese when her girls, Rhonda and Ramona and I bunked together upstairs with the fans running at Grandma Schrage's house. We used to walk through the hedges to Dairy King in Breese for shakes or cones. Life was so much simpler then. I truly wish I could be there tomorrow with you all, please let's do a Zoom call. Alice's daughter Stephanie and I were hoping to come down and I had a serious health issue pop up, preventing me from driving or flying time being. I truly know the Schrage clan in heaven is happy to see Stella and may she be exalted in a state of perfection for her continued faith in our Lord, Jesus Christ during her time here with us. I will grab my rosary and pray along with you all, cousins. I hope it will be broadcasted on closed cable. Biggest hugs, tears and blessings to all her big and beautiful extended family, I am with you there on Spirit. Love you all ♡Ann Marie Schrage-Glaviano
