“ I worked for Sue when she was POA for her neighbor Frank Baker. She was one of the nicest respectable women I have ever met. She took care of her elderly ill neighbor during his final years of life when he had no family left and suffered through cancer. She gave her compassion, energy and her time to this neighbor. This was the most compassionate act of being who she truly was as a upstanding member of the community. She had a impact on me in a positive way that words can't express. when I heard of her passing away it saddened me but I was blessed to have met her and grateful I was given a chance to call her a friend . The world is at a loss, but heaven gained a beautiful soul. Thank you Sue for everything you did during your life by helping others..

“ Memories of Sue go way back to my childhood growing up in Central City. She sat along side my mom at all the P.T.A. meetings, all our activities, and was a devoted room mother.

Our mom's had the mom "hotline" a sure fire way of tracking us kids down for supper. Sue would call mom looking for Kevin, or Mom would call her to see if I flew by on my bike. We could usually be found hanging out with friends at the grade school playground.

Such good memories of the Queen family.

My first "real" job was working along side her at Dobbs. Sue took me under her wing, as I was the new pup on the block. She was always smiling, and loved a good laugh. I respected her so. She had the courage to call it as she saw it & stand her ground. I admired that in her. The losses she endured throughout her life showed the courage, and inner strength she possessed. She was an amazing lady.

Through the years I would see her out and about, and we would stop for a quick hello, and how are you? She will be missed. Her family is blessed to have had such a wonderful mother, and Grandmother. Our deepest sympathy to you all

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Sue for a few short years. Her love for her family and friends was evident in all she did, cooking their favorite foods for family gatherings, giving careful thought in selecting gifts, spending as much time with them as she could. She loved her family deeply. I admired Sue most for the selfless way she cared for her mother, she was kind, compassionate and loving during her mother's final years! She was a gracious and loving daughter.

Sue will be sadly missed! Greg and I will miss her presence, her chicken and dumplings and stewed apples and hearing her stories at family gatherings.
