“ Well this is not how I wanted to meet up with you again. This is not how I thought we would talk again! The last time I seen you was at the family reunion this year. I didn't want that to be the last time I seen you! I know that we really never got a chance to hang out like I wanted... Knowing that the miles apart was hard for us to do that! But the times that I did get that chance to be around you I cherished every moment! We always had good times! I never got a chance to tell you that I love you Hippy and you Will always have a special place in my ?! I remember at Tammy's wedding the time we spent out back at the bar together was awesome! I will never forget that day because that's when you hugged my neck and said how happy you were because I was your sister! That's the day I told myself wow I finally Have a Brother Hippie! Brother it saddens my heart that I won't be seeing you here on ! I will see you again one day! And until that day just remember that I truly and miss you so much! R I.P
