

Terry Horton

September 8, 1955 - June 9, 2020

Terry Horton, 64, of Central City, passed away Tuesday, June 9, 2020, surrounded by his family.

He was born September 8, 1955 in Centralia, the son of Walter Horton and Agnes (Evans) Horton.

In addition to his mother, Agnes Horton of Central City, he is also survived by two children: Justin Horton of Jacksonville, Illinois and Michelle Jones and husband Doug of Kearney, Missouri; three grandchildren: Baylea Jones, Kindyl Jones and Tucker Jones all of Kearney, Missouri; four brothers and three sisters: Tim Horton and wife Ruthie of Sandoval, Tom Horton of Centralia, Tony Horton and wife Beth of Odin, Troy Horton and husband Brandon Bird of Mt. Vernon, Teresa Horton of Odin, Tonya Estrada and husband Alvaro of St. Peters, Missouri, and Tiffany Hixenbaugh of Central City; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Terry was preceded in death by his father, Walter Horton, and maternal and paternal grandparents.

Terry was a member of the Glenridge Baptist Church in Junction City. He worked at Hillcrest Memorial Park on the grounds for several years. He enjoyed mowing, making campfires, watching Deadliest Catch, and listening to classic rock music. You would always see Terry in the McDonald's drive thru in the mornings to get his cup of coffee. Terry cherished the time he spent with his family, friends and had a big heart for children.

“ One thing I'm gonna miss is his laugh. If anyone knows the Hortons, you know they all have a distinct laugh but Terry's laugh sounded just like his dad, Walter. Also he was so good to all his nieces & nephews. Every time my son was around, he would reach in his pocket & pull out a handful of change & give it to him then he would laugh his Horton laugh because of the huge smile on my sons face & then give my son a big hug & kiss on the cheek. I'm truly gonna miss him. See you again one day in Heaven. Prayers to the entire family. Love you all
