“ I worked with Todd for several years on the farm. He was a great guy. Always had a joke to tell. Willing to do anything and everything. Was also a listening ear when you needed it. Would even let a guy ride his motorcycle if you wanted to. He was a very good truck driver in my opinion. I spent many days with him on the farm we both learned a lot from each other. He was one of the most giving people I know. He once bout me a Milwaukee lunch box cause he knew I was obsessed with Milwaukee tools. My sincere condolences to the family. He will be truly missed.
